Dennis L. Langdon, son of Sylvan and Gladys Langdon, was born September 2, 1944 in Sioux Falls, SD. He was the youngest of five children. He married his high school sweetheart, Sharon Quigley, on June 13, 1964. He graduated from Washington High School in Sioux Falls, SD, served in the Air Force from 1963 to 1967, and graduated from Northwestern Electronics Institute, Minneapolis, MN. Dennis retired from MTTR as a field engineer in 1989, subsequently opening his own car repair business with his wife, D & S Frame and Unibody. Dennis spent his golden years sharing his wisdom and conversing with his children, playing with his grandchildren, and fulfilling his passion for rebuilding old cars and tractors. He also enjoyed his Friday morning breakfasts with friends and neighbors. His latest passion included sculpting the backyard of his Lakeville home into his own version of paradise for he and his wife to enjoy.

He is Preceded in death by his father and mother, Sylvan and Gladys Langdon. Survived by his loving wife Sharon; children, Rochelle (Greg), Debra, Jamison (Kelly); grandchildren, Briana, John, Jake, MyKaila, MegAnne, A.J., Chloe, Heather-Nevaeh, and Ava; siblings, Roger, Glenice, Janet, and Doug; many nieces, nephews, cousins, friends and beloved dog Charlie.
