- ii. OSCAR D. ANDREWS, b. 17 Apr 1851, Sheboygan Cty, Wis⁶; d. 18 May 1895, Weston Cty, Wyoming; m. NETTIE LUCINDA COLLIER, 31 Jan 1879; b. 1857; d. 10 Sep 1880, Mitchell County, IA⁷.

Notes for OSCAR D. ANDREWS:

Newspaper clipping from the Osage, IA newspaper announcing Oscar's death:

"Oscar D. Andrews committed suicide at the home of his brother, E.J. Andrews on Mason Creek in Weston, county of Wyoming.

Oscar had been married less than two years when his wife died suddenly of heart disease. He never seemed to recover from the shock of this. After her death he spent most of his time traveling about the western states. He visited the World's Fair and became deranged. He wandered out west and was lost by his family until after several months his brothers found him in San Francisco and brought him home.

He was taken to the insane asylum at Independence. About two months before his death he was brought home, but his condition had not improved. He went to Wyoming with his mother and brother James. it was probably in a spell of despondency that he went into the woods and hanged himself."

Records from the Cherokee (Iowa) State Hospital include the following information regarding Oscar:

History: about 1891 was thrown from a delivery wagon by a runaway and struck on forehead, cutting a gash 2-3" in Washington State.

March, 1893 - went to the World's Fair in Chicago and from there his friends lost word of him.

After

advertising in many papers he was finally found in jail in Martins, Calif. having been arrested as a vagrant. In June, 1893 he was in a general hospital in Calif treated for alcoholic poisoning.

Aug 8, 1893 Warrant of admission to Cherokee State Hospital

Feb 3, 1894 Warrant of admission to the Iowa Hospital for the Insane in Independence, IA, readmission, not cured previously.

These records also indicate that he was accompanied by a brother, W.S. Andrews of Orchard, IA and a Mrs. J. E. Andrews. (probably brother Walter and his mother).

Family stories tell of him having mental problems after his wife died and that he would travel out west and his brothers would have to go get him. One story told of him being jailed in San Francisco after he had tried to set fire to his hotel room.

Discussion:

In 2002, this researcher was contacted by 2 descendants of an Oscar Andrews who had been committed to the Independence, Iowa insane asylum in the 1893-95 time period. Their Oscar was married to Esther McTaggart and living in Wright, County, IA. (which borders Mitchell County). He was later transferred to another asylum where he died in 1928 and was buried next to Esther (who died about 1927) in the Rowan, Wright County, IA cemetery.

The descendants have struggled to find any information about their Oscar Andrews because of the secrecy surrounding his life. Initially, they believed that their Oscar was also This Oscar. In 2006, they found evidence of an Oscar H. Andrews b. 1859 who lived in Wright Cty., IA and married Esther in 1884. This new evidence supports that there were two Oscar Andrews who ended up in the asylum - Oscar D. (son of Almon) and Oscar H. (husband of Esther). Finding the official certificate of death from Wyoming would lend further support that there were two separate Oscar Andrews.

WILLIAM MARTIN⁸ ANDREWS (*ALMON*⁷, *EZRA*⁶, *SAMUEL*⁵, *ZEPHANIAH*⁴, *SAMUEL*³, *THOMAS*², *WILLIAM*¹) was born 13 Nov 1867 in Lincoln Twnshp., Mitchell, IA, and died 24 Jul 1901 in Mitchell County, IA. He married LILLIAN A. COONRADT 26 Feb 1890 in Orchard, Mitchell, IA²⁹, daughter of HENRY COONRADT and LOVINA DAGGETT. She was born 16 Feb 1871³⁰, and died 28 Mar 1930.

Notes for WILLIAM MARTIN ANDREWS:

Obituary from the Osage, IA newspaper - The Journal 1901

"William martin Andrews, whose death was caused by lighting (sic) on the afternoon of July 24th was born on the old homestead of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Almon Andrews, in Lincoln township, on November 13, 1866. he has always lived in the township of his birth and at his death resided on his own farm just across the road from the old homestead. he was married to Miss Lillie A. Coonradt on February 26th, 1890 and leaves a wife and little boy, and a large number of other relatives to mourn his sad and sudden death.

The funeral services were held last Friday morning at the Stillwater Congregational church and conducted by Rev. S. L. Taylor, pastor of the Universalist church at Osage. The church would not begin to hold all who gathered to pay their last respects to their friend and neighbor.

The circumstances of his death were given by The Journal last week. He was assisting his brother Linzy stack barley and had just stepped from the stack to the rack when he was instantly killed by lighting (sic). His brother, who was only about three feet from him, was not hurt.

There are few men who live the good, straightforward life and are more universally respected than was Martin Andrews. For thirty five years he has lived in the same neighborhood, and we do not believe he had an enemy in the world. he was a man of the strictest integrity, a good manager, and by hard and honest work had built a nice little home on a fine 80 acre farm. he also carried a thousand dollars life insurance in the New York Life, and leaves his wife and little boy in comfortable circumstances.

As children and school boys together, martin Andrews and the writer were almost constantly together. We slept in the same bed most of the time, sat in the same seat in the old blue school house and studied from the same books. We pulled weeds and dropped corn sided by side, and together in blue overalls and striped shirts have we waded and fished in the Little Cedar for miles up and down the river. Circumstances carried the writer west and for nearly twenty years we were separated. We drifted in to the printing business; he remained on the farm. last Friday morning as we slowly wended our way with his remains over the old road from the old homestead, across the bridge and out past the old blue school house, we closed our eyes for an instant and a panorama of boyhood days passed before us. How many memories, almost forgotten, though cherished and loved, came before our vision as plainly and distinctly as if 'twere but yesterday we traveled, barefooted, with books and slate, over the old road together. Faces on the old school ground, long forgotten were as real as life, and later we recognized some of them in the church across the river. We saw under the trees near the old school house the very place where we had many times stabled our stick horses, and the same old path that went to the swimmin' hole was still there.

Martin was always a favorite, and from boyhood to manhood he held his place among companions and neighbors. His death is mourned by all and those near and dear have the deepest sympathy of the entire community."

Family information supplied to this researcher from a great-nephew of Eva's listed her as having 9 children. On the 1910 US census, Arland, Barron, WI, she is noted as having 7 children, all of them living. Elmer was born after 1910, and I have no dates for Mabel nor Myrtie. On this 1910 census, there are 2 Berties listed, one 8 yrs. old, and the other as 1 yr. of age (the latter concurs with my records for Bertha). Possibly, the former is actually Myrtie?. This census also lists son Leon as Lean S. - female, age 10.

Grandpa tells this story.....When he was younger, he and his dad were in their house at the ranch and gramp had the 22 that had a bad sight so he was taking a small hammer and hitting the sight to align it. His dad (Will) told him to HIT it, so he did and the gun went off and the bullet went into the kitchen and hit the cupboard. It didn't hurt anyone, but put a hole in the wall. Gramp says it was the darndest thing." (Deb is the granddaughter of Randolph Allen Perry. The Grandpa she refers to here is actually her great-uncle William Calvin Perry).
